

Q1. At what age should we begin reading to children?

- a. Two years
- b. Three years
- c. One year
- d. birth

Q2. How many words should a child know by the age of three?

- a. 200
- b. 500
- c. 700
- d. 1100

Q3. Children can learn language just as well from educational television and tablets with learning apps.

- a. True
- b. False

Q4. 90 percent of brain development happens by age

- a. 12
- b. 18
- c. 5
- d. 2

Will you do anything new or different based on what you heard?

- I will encourage new parents to have more face-to-face time with their infants.
- Introduce more words daily. Talk more, less TV shows.
- Engage in more opportunities to increase vocabulary words.
- Read more even at their ages.
- Read more to my kids and try to teach them another language.
- Less tablets.